[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NASHVILLE (Tenn., Sept. 14.—Capt.

Ben W. Hooper, Republican nominee for Governor, was rebukedunanimously by the Independent Democratic convention today.The platform adopted by the Independent Democratic convention says in part:"We denounce the usurpation of party authority in the name of Democracy of the Patterson machine, and we condemn its efforts to disfranchise Democratic voters of this State.The independence and integrity of the three coordinate departments of our State government should be preserved in all their constitutional limitations and we denounce the action of the Governor in attempting, by the use of his political machine, to control the actions of the Legislature and to coerce the Supreme Court in the matter of a case pending before it."We indorse the four-mile law (the prohibition law) and its various amendments, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in this State, and we condemn the efforts of Gov. Patterson to discredit these laws without giving them the test of enforcement."When the Governor of the State, in violation of his oath of office refuses to uphold and enforce the law, he becomes a teacher of anarchy and an enemy of Republican institutions and a menace to the security of human life and property rights."We unqualifiedly condemn the abuse of the pardoning power by Gov. Patterson and his efforts to convert the penitentiary and work house into political recruiting offices and to make the garrison and the punishment of crime an asset in his political machine."Among the other planks was one favoring nomination "by direct and express authority of the people, through primary elections or delegated conventions."The regular State Democratic Committee tonight called a convention to meet in Nashville October 6 to nominate a gubernatorial candidate and adopt a platform.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo., Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Jack Cudahy was compelled yesterday afternoon to abandon her intention of living at Haddon Hall, the ultra-fashionable South Side apartment-house, because guests in the house threatened to remove if she lived there.When told of this feeling the vivacious divorced wife of a millionaire son shrugged her shoulders, smiled brightly and went away to look for apartments elsewhere.The incident is about the only thing circles and was runner-up in the golf tournament at the Country Club a year ago when he was defeated by Jere

S. Lilla for the title.Mrs. Cudahy called at Haddon Hall yesterday afternoon and asked to be shown some vacant apartments. Mrs.
Law, who owns the apartments, took her through a vacant suite, which Mrs.
Cudahy found very attractive. She indicated some changes she would like to have made and Mrs. Law was making a note of them when there was an interruption.Several women who lived there knew Mrs. Cudahy when she first entered the hall. They say her going with Mrs. Law to the vacant suite and immediately guessing that she was thinking of leaving them.Then there were protests loud and firm. Mrs. Law finally returned to her caller and very much embarrassed said that she had that matter in mind and would come back to see her.
It is there, they think, that she was told that she did not like her.
Then she went away.

PACKERS MAY SPRING COUP.
Chicago Lawyers Are Busy With Their Defense.

Plan Argument to Startle Prosecution.
Both Sides Confer; One Plea to Cover Cases.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Starting legal moves in behalf of the ten big meat packers under indictment before Judge Landis were presented today. An air of deep secrecy was thrown around the plans of the defense by the corps of attorneys working on the case. A representative of the packers who has been a party to the councils at which the plan of defense was outlined, declared today that when it is presented in court the attorneys for the government will be unprepared at its nature. The lawyers who are handling the case refused to discuss the case, being unwilling that the government should get any leading of the plans.

"All rumors as to what defense the packers will make, spring from guesswork only," declared Levy Mayer, with John S. Miller, at the head of the packers' legal staff.

"The nature of the defense is necessarily confidential between the lawyers and their clients. It will not become public until the time when it is made in court."

Mr. Mayer would not deny that the defense will be along lines that are unique in fighting prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law. He also refused to throw any light on whether his defense will go so far as to attempt to have the law declared invalid.

United States Attorney Sims and his assistants, James H. Wilson, and Attorney Levy Mayer, met at lunch today and discussed certain phases of the packers' cases. It was said at the end of the conference that there was nothing for publication.

The plea will be entered when the defendants are arraigned. This is not expected to be until all of them have given bonds, as the plan is to enter one plea for all of them, covering the entire case.

HURRY FROM EUROPE.
Louis P. Swift, president of Swift & Co., and Thomas J. Connors, superintendent for Armour & Co., are in Europe and both have called that they are hurrying back. Mr. Connors is expected to arrive before a week has passed. Francis A. Fowler, department manager for Swift & Co., has been seriously ill for some time at the Wentworth Hotel. His attorney says that he may be expected to appear Friday and sign a bond.

FATHER TRIES TO HAVE SON ARRESTED.

Young Man Attempts to Make "the Governor Come Through" by Threatening Suicide—"It's Caribou," He Says, and Swallows It, But Police Found It Was Whisky.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George H. Mulligan, Sr., who might have been the hard-hearted, millionaire father in a Laura Wheeler Lafford novel, did not stay today to have his son and namesake, George H. Mulligan, Jr., arrested and charged with attempted suicide.

George Mulligan, Sr., was so rich that when Richard A. McCurdy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, who had been a close friend of the life insurance man, who was known as the Duke of Morris-town, he went into the automobile business to amuse young George. It did all right.

It amused lots of his friends, too. The car ran for the benefit of the business only when young Mulligan or his friends did not need them on personal calls.

In September a year ago, George married Jessie Van Ness, a girl who attained much admiration for her qualities of person, while she was a member of the late Beauty Spot Company.

It was the last straw for Father Mulligan. He reduced the young man's pay from $5 a week to $2 a day as a cleaner. George rose in his dignity and resigned.

GRUESOME TESTIMONY IS GIVEN IN DR. CRIPPEN MURDER TRIAL.

Pathologist Tells of Examining Parts of Body Found in Cellar—Says Flesh Was Positively That of a Human Being—No Trace of the Sea—Finds a Scar—Another Witness.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—Testifying at the resumption today of the Crippen murder trial, Prof. Augustus J. Pepper, pathologist of the University of London, said his examination had convinced him that the human parts found in the cellar of the Hill-top Crescent house were severed by a hand skilled in surgery and directed by a mind that possessed real knowledge of anatomy.

The evidence of the medical experts has been awaited with eagerness, and the famous little courtroom in Bow street was crowded to its capacity. The prisoners in the dock presented contrasting appearances. Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, who is charged as the principal in the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore, the American actress, was seemingly as cool and collected as ever. He did not miss a word of testimony, and eagerly whispered to his solicitor, Arthur Newton, whenever he thought he had detected a point in his favor.

On the other hand, Ethel Claire Leveson, accused as an accessory after the fact, was in a state of mental and physical distress. The police authorities had expected that the day would be a trying one for her, and she was attended for the first time in court by a wardress, who sat close to her throughout the proceedings.

POSITIVELY HUMAN.
Prof. Pepper was the first witness called by the prosecution. At considerable length, he described the examination which he made of the parts and set forth his conclusions. Witness said he had identified pieces of flesh as belonging to various parts of the body, except the head, hands, feet, arms, and legs below the knee. He could say that the members found were undoubtedly from a human body.

No bones were discovered, nor was there any trace of the genital organs. The whole viscera was intact, and the only wound was a cut in the upper part of the wind pipe. Other parts were left undisturbed by the one who did the cutting, and the way in which the parts were cut, the expert had convinced the jury that whoever was guilty of the mutilation did his work with an exactness born of familiarity with the human body.

Prof. Pepper said that the hair dis-harmony.

URGES SUPPORT OF INSURGENTS.
ROOSEVELT DIGESTS RETURNS FROM WASHINGTON.

"Just as I Urged Insurgents in South Dakota to Support Regulars There Nominated, So Do I Urge the Regulars to Support the Insurgents," He Says—Trip Plans.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] OYSTER BAY (N. Y.), Sept. 14.—Reports of the insurgent victory in the Republican primaries of Washington reached Theodore Roosevelt tonight and he immediately urged that all factions of the party unite to support Representative Miles Polindexter for the United States Senate and the three insurgent nominees for Congress.

"Just as in South Dakota, where the regulars won, I urged the insurgents to support the regulars," he said. "So I most earnestly urge that the insurgents in Washington, where I am informed that Mr. Polindexter has been endorsed for the Senate, and the three insurgent nominees for Congress, must be given loyal support by the regulars."

Mr. Roosevelt spent several hours today in talking with James H. Reynolds of New York, Assistant District Attorney. He said they had talked over the labor plans in the Republican State platform and had gone over general labor conditions.

Tomorrow, Roosevelt will leave by automobile for Riverhead, L. I., to make an address at the Suffolk County Fair. The colonel said he would leave New York early Saturday morning for Syracuse, where he will speak at the State Fair that afternoon.

George J. Gould Says Foreign Investors Will Loosen Up After Battle of Ballots.

UNSETTLED.
SECOND COUNT FOR DECISION.

First Washington District Not Yet in.

Republican Nominee for Congress in Doubt.

Is Between Humphrey and T. P. Revelle.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SEATTLE, Sept. 14.—Several days may pass before it is known who is nominated for Congress on the Republican ticket in the First Washington District.

There were five candidates, and the primary voters shall mark on the ballot his first and second choice. Then, if no candidate receives 40 per cent of the votes cast, the first and second choice shall be added together and the candidate receiving the highest number of votes in the totals so obtained shall be the nominee.

In King county, Representative W. E. Humphrey, standpatter, ran 700 votes behind Thomas P. Revelle, insurgent, and received only 20 per cent of the total vote of the county.

Humphrey carried all the other counties of the district, yet, it is believed, he fell below 40 per cent on the first choice vote, and the second choice votes, therefore, will be counted.

Humphrey got few second choice votes, but Revelle was a general second choice favorite and may win. Jefferson county, which gave Judge Burke, for United States Senator, 75 plurality, is the only county which Miles Polindexter, insurgent candidate for Senator, did not carry. All estimates of Polindexter's plurality go as high as 500 votes.

INSURGENTS GAIN ONE.
The insurgents gain only one Congressman—Stanford Warburton, in the Second, or Tacoma, District—who defeated Representative W. W. McClelland. The Third, or Everett, District, which nominated William L. Polindexter, a Democrat, was already insurgent.

The Democratic vote was so small that it returns sent in thus far take no account of it. It is believed that State Senator George F. Cotnam of Seattle, who has received the Democratic nomination for Senator.

In the First District, the only Democratic candidate for Representative was W. W. Black of Everett, who was unanimously chosen. In the Second District, M. Langhorne of Tacoma, was similarly nominated. In the Third District there were two candidates.

As the Democratic vote was only 2 per cent of the total it is evident that many Democrats voted Republican ballots. Polindexter having received a majority of the vote in the district, he is expected to be elected.

On the other hand, the Democrats would be disappointed, even if there were a division of the vote between the two candidates.

LIBERAL PAPERS DECLARE HE IS THE MOOSE WHO WILL LEAD THE UNITED STATES OUT OF THE TRUST WILDERNESS—FREE TRADE PUBLICATIONS ARE DELIGHTED—Various Views.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] LONDON, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] British newspapers are giving much more space to Theodore Roosevelt than to the other American politicians combined, and excepting President Taft. The Liberal press calls the former President the Moose who is to lead the United States out of the trust wilderness.

Full reports were published of his western tour, and of his refusal to sit at the same table with Senator Landon. The comment on this incident is that it is high time that decent American public men were beginning to select their company.

Republican defeat in Maine, like other exhibitions of insurgent vitality, has been taken by the influence of Mr. Roosevelt. The free trade papers are inexpressibly delighted. The Daily Chronicle says this morning:

"Throughout the world the masses are in revolt against the policy of protection, and the movement is particularly pronounced in the United States. The Republican party has dishonored itself by its subservience to the trusts, whose merciless exactions at last have provoked the resentment of a long-suffering people. Mr. Roosevelt, heart and soul in sympathy with the Republican rebellion."

Washington by a clear majority over all opponents in his race for the United States Senate, Congressman Miles Polindexter takes his sweeping victory in Tuesday's primaries modestly.

"I am as much gratified by the victory of the progressive candidates for Congress as by my own," he said today.

His wife devoted her attention to the family washing as usual. "I know all the time the judge would be elected," she declared. "I felt it in my bones."

MISSOURI DEMOCRAT FIGHTS LINE IN CONVENTION.

Col. Phelps, Lobbyist, Who Ate from Missouri Pacific's Hand for Twenty Years, Forces Plank in State Platform Against Three-Cent Rate—Folk Indorsed for President.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.), Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The attitude of Col. William H. Phelps, who severed his connection with the Missouri Pacific Railroad a year ago after serving it twenty years as its chief lobbyist in Missouri, was the spectacular feature of the State Democratic Convention, which adopted its platform today.

Phelps forced the adoption of planks protesting against the Missouri Pacific charging 3-cent fare while other railroads charge only 2 1/2 cents a mile and for giving the State Railroad Commission the right to fix railroad rates and regulate the issuance of stocks and bonds by corporations.

Phelps is credited with forcing the election as Democratic State chairman of Joseph Shannon of Kansas City, lieutenant of ex-Mayor James Reed of Kansas City, rival of ex-Gov. David R. Francis for the nomination for United States Senator.

Phelps attacks on the grounds, his former employer, seemingly reveals why he is candidate for the Legislature. The Democratic platform promises not to disfranchise negroes. This recalls the defeat of ex-Congressman Coward, Democratic candidate for Governor at the last State election, following a speech here in which he practically declared for disfranchisement of negroes.

"If the Augustan states can be cleansed of the trusts, it is the duty of the Democrats to do it. Whether the Republicans or the Democrats win in the next national election, we may expect to witness a staggering spectacle of high protection and at the power of the bosses that has befouled the Republican cause."

WEALTHY COP QUILTS JOB.

No Time to Walk Beat and Guard His Fortune, Too. Resigns.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PORTLAND, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] F. W. Peterson, known as the "millionaire policeman," today resigned from the local force because his duties as an officer interfered with the care of his wealth. Nobody knows just how much Peterson is worth, but it runs into six figures. It is said he made most of it by shrewd real estate trades. Peterson had just returned from a fifteen days' vacation, and asked Chief Cox for a leave of absence, so that he might attend to business matters in Kansas City. He was refused, and immediately turned in his star. Peterson has long been able to live in luxury without working, but preferred to walk a beat.

PANIC ON FERRYBOAT.

Crazed Chinese Runs Amuck With Gun While Crossing Bay and Is Overpowered.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Yee Gow, a Chinese laundryman from Sacramento, who ran amuck with a loaded revolver on the ferryboat Newark last evening and created a panic among the passengers, is at the Detention Hospital, awaiting examination as to his sanity. The Chinese was captured on the ferryboat by a special policeman and several deck hands. He was sitting on the lower deck when he suddenly drew a revolver and ran about the boat, throwing men, women and children about the deck and creating a general panic. After being subdued he was bound and turned over to the police, who conveyed him to a hospital. When the man reached the hospital he again began to fight and engaged several stewards and other attendants in a hard fight before he could be put in a straight jacket.

WANT SLICES OF REWARD.

Small Army of Claimants Admit They Assisted in Capture of Exposed Train Robbers.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SACRAMENTO, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Before Constable Mike Judge of the American River townsite can collect the $500 reward offered by the Southern Pacific for the arrest of Dunbar and Bishop, the train robbers who held up the China and Japan Fast Mail last April, he may have to contend with a host of claimants. Seven other claimants have demanded $250 each of the reward for "assisting" in the capture of the robbers. O. J. Pyfer has filed a demand for $250 on the ground that he handcuffed one of the robbers at the request of Constable Judge after the latter had arrested the highwayman. J. Shaw who was with Pyfer at the time, also asks $250, although both of them were willing to accept $100 apiece some time ago. D. B. Eicks, at that time a Southern Pacific officer, asks $250 for helping Constable Judge dig up the record and Ward Mullin, a Southern Pacific photographer, asks $250 for looking up descriptions of the guns found on the robbers. ON TRAIL OF MURDER CLEW.

RENO POLICE FIND GHASTLY EVIDENCES.

Human Skull and Apparatuses of Female Unearthed Under Building Formerly Occupied by Milliner, Who Adopted Children That Mysteriously Disappeared After Being Insured.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) RENO, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "A rag and a bone and a hank of hair" exhumed from the foundation of a building which was burned to the ground some weeks ago is all that the authorities have to work on in ferreting out the mystery of a brutal murder. Circumstantial evidence unerringly points to one person, however, and the police hope to solve what appeared at first to be an unfathomable problem. Excavators removing the ruins and debris of the fire found a human skull with a bullet hole drilled through the top, two ribs, a hip bone, a pair of women's shoes, silk stockings, two stays from a corset, a box of cold cream and a wisp of matted hair, yesterday and today. The articles were imbedded in the muck and filth of a disused cesspool. Investigation has revealed the fact that many years ago the building was occupied by Mother Bigelow, a milliner, whose adoption of young girls and their subsequent disappearance caused considerable suspicion to be cast on her until she left Reno. It has also been ascertained that the woman insured the lives of all the children she adopted, and that she never gave satisfactory proof of where they went to after their disappearance. Mother Bigelow was arrested many times in this city for her cruelty to the girls who lived with her, and finally ran high against her. The last heard of her was three years ago when the authorities of Berkeley, Cal., telegraphed the local Chief of Police for a record of the woman. She had been arrested there for ill-treating a child on which she had taken out a large premium.

He alleged that he has trailed the two for more than a year over many States and in many cities. Sheriff Ferrell filed a statement today that he had learned that the mother took the children away on the 2nd of last July.

Suspect in Jail.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After a search of two weeks, the body of Roy Perkins was found today near the mouth of Coos River. The search was conducted on the theory that Perkins had been murdered and the discovery bears it out, the body being weighted down by rocks at the head and feet and a bullet hole through the heart. Frank Garrison is in the City Jail charged with the murder. Perkins quarreled with Perkins at Summer, ten miles from here, and drew a gun on him. Perkins started to shoot but was overpowered by Garrison, and the latter was seen to leave in the same direction about five minutes after the murder. Perkins never reached Marshfield and no trace of him was found until the body was discovered at low tide today by Donald Charleston, a Federal engineer. FORMER PREACHER ARRESTED.

Charged With Obstructing Street While Delivering Socialist Address in Salt Lake.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 14.—William Thurston Brown, former pastor of the Unitarian Church, became a martyr to the cause of "free speech" this evening. He was arrested, while speaking on the street, booked at the Police Station on the charge of obstructing the sidewalk and released under $100 bail. The six Socialist Labor speakers arrested last night will be tried tomorrow for obstructing traffic. The use of the streets for speaking never has been restricted until recently. A few weeks ago attacks on the army by Socialist Labor speakers aggravated soldiers from Fort Douglas and almost precipitated a riot. Chief of Police Barlow thereupon issued an order forbidding street speaking without permits. Defiance of this order by the Socialist Labor propagandists led to a number of arrests. The regular Socialists disavowed the acts of the laborite branch of their party, but Brown, who is a State organizer for the regulars, was impelled to enlist in the "free speech" crusade by what he denounced as the arbitrary orders of the police. Brown has written a number of Socialist pamphlets. He resigned the pastorate of his church to devote his time entirely to the socialist propaganda.

LAST CHANCE TO MAKE GOOD

Weak Banks Must Strengthen or Close Their Doors.

Ultimatum Is Given by the Comptroller of Currency.

Murray Bound to Enforce Powers of His Office.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—During the next few weeks the federal banks in the United States rated as "weak" will have their last chance to strengthen themselves or get out of business. The examiners have been instructed to carry the ultimatum to every board of directors that needs it.

The statement of the condition of every national bank in the country at the close of business September 1, will be the last chance for any national bank to show its capital impaired by any reduction of its reserve under the limit and had paper in its vaults or any concealed liabilities.

The government which the national bank law confers on the Comptroller of the Currency are absolute.

Acting on the principle that it is better to liquidate a weak bank, pay off the depositors and save some of the investment for the shareholders, Comptroller Murray will use all the authority of his office to compel sound banking in the strong institutions—and compel the weak institutions to strengthen or retire.

Treasury Officials Catch Shoppers for Millinery and Dressmakers at Custom Ports.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One year ago when the westward tide of wholesale shoppers from the big millinery and dressmaking establishments had set in, just after the Payne-Aldrich tariff law went into effect, the customs inspectors corralled numerous representatives of the big Fifth-avenue establishments with contraband upon their persons.

This year these buyers have foregone New York as a port of entry. Niagara Falls has been the scene of the custom men's first findings.

Today came further reports.

The Treasury Department officials decline as yet to make public any names, but say that the list of buyers has been three times as large as last year. We expect to make several more arrests within the next twenty-four hours.

UNEARTH BANK JUGGLING.

GOVERNMENT EXAMINES LOANS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—A system by which banks in the small cities in the West have been fooling national bank examiners and concealing loans in their reserve bank in a large city, has been discovered and is under investigation. Following is the statement by Comptroller of the Currency Murray, that the practice generally was under suspicion, it became known today that an examiner had made a concrete study of where as many as a dozen banks in small cities had been concealing loans in one reserve bank in Chicago. It was announced some time ago that large city banks making application to be designated as reserve agents would have to pass the stringent test of an examination of their condition. It is now known the reason for the adoption of such a rule was to hold a check on the reserve banks and prevent them from becoming accessories to any such system of concealment as has been discovered.

Superiority of Aeroplanes for Reconnaissance Over Dirigibles Is Proven Before Presidents of France and Brazil, Military and State Authorities at French Maneuvers.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

GRAND VILLIERS (France) Sept. 14.—President Fallieres, accompanied by the President-elect of Brazil, Marshal Hermes Fonseca, Premier Briand and foreign military attaches, witnessed the operation of the dirigible balloons and aeroplanes in the army maneuvers today.

Three dirigibles and six aeroplanes, including those manned by the reconnaissance, Latham and Paulhan, took prominent part in the operation.

Aeroplanes, from each side reconnoitered along the front for twenty miles, making reports of the position of the various units of the generals commanding. Thus far the aeroplanes have given better results than the dirigibles, which on Monday and Tuesday, were prevented from leaving their stations by high winds.

Army officers are enthusiastic over the accuracy of the aeroplanes reconnaissance. Gen. Picquart, commanding the Second Corps, and Gen. Munier, commanding the Third Corps, each morning before 7 o'clock are in position to receive a description of the location and movements of each other's forces.

Meunier today completely outgeneraled Picquart, succeeding in turning the latter's position.

Asleep.

The first bite the girl thought was the scratch of a pet kitten, but a few minutes later she was fully awakened by intense pain. Lighting a lamp she discovered a four-foot blacksnake coiled around the dining-room into the kitchen and escape through a rat hole.

The girl was taken to a physician, who cauterized the wound. The arm is badly swollen, however, and blood poisoning is feared.

GOULD LINE IS COMING.

Agreement With Santa Fe Is Reached.

Both Companies Profit by the Arrangement.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An agreement has been reached between the Western Pacific and the Santa Fe Railroad companies whereby the Western Pacific gains an outlet into Southern California and the territory now reached by the Santa Fe, while the Santa Fe is permitted to use the territory north of Stockton and Nevada points now reached by the Western Pacific.

The arrangement will become effective about October 15 and will result in direct competition between the Southern Pacific and Northern and Southern California and between Nevada points and El Paso.

The rumor that an agreement had been reached between the two companies was confirmed by Freight Traffic Manager Adams of the Western Pacific and Edward Chambers of the Santa Fe.

The Western Pacific proposes to make rates from eastern territory by way of San Francisco to Portland in connection with the North Pacific Steamship Company and the Alaska Pacific Steamship Company. Negotiations to that end have been made, which will allow the Western Pacific to quote rates equal to the other northern rail lines.

Negotiations are now being carried on between the Western Pacific and the North Pacific Steamship Company to handle business by way of San Francisco to Portland in connection with the North Bank road and the Northern Pacific or Great Northern to Spokane, Helena and interior points. When the agreement is made it will only be necessary for the Western Pacific to publish the tariff, and that will be concluded in ten days.

ROADS ASK RATE INCREASES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—W. C. Maxwell, general traffic manager of the Wabash, today told the Interstate Commerce Commissioners who are investigating the proposed freight rate increase of eastern railroads, that he considered the rates, suspended pending the investigation, reasonable, and added:

"We operate an expeditious merchandise service. In response to the shipper's demands, we have to carry goods in lightly loaded cars.

"The Coyote cut-off, which we get $2.50 as our share of the $75 for that class rate to Chicago and with higher rates of freight and terminal charges, we don't believe we can make a cent out of it. We must have more money to live."

Maxwell was asked how advanced rates would affect the cost of living and he replied it would add perhaps three cents to the cost of a pair of shoes sent to Chicago or St. Louis from Massachusetts. He thought a dozen eggs sent East from St. Louis would cost a cent more.

DID TEDDY DO IT?

CUT-OFF WILL NOT BE MADE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PORTLAND, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Announcement was made in the office of the O. R. and N. this morning that the contract with Twoby for construction of the Coyote cut-off will not be made.

The contract called for an expenditure of some $500,000. No reason for the company's action was given, but it was said in railroad circles that the Harriman interests have decided on a policy of retrenchment, fearing the effects of Roosevelt's recent order that the Middle West. No Harriman officials would permit an interview on the cancellation of the contract.

The Coyote cut-off contract provided for straightening the line of the O. R. and N. between Coyote Station and Standish, in Eastern Oregon.

BUSINESS FALLS OFF.

LESS FREIGHT IS SHIPPED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Railroads operating eastward from Chicago and St. Louis did not make so good a showing this week as during the preceding. There was a falling off in tonnage of about 15 per cent. This was in pressed freight, provisions, coal and lumber.

The freight which includes heavy machinery and freight of that character, which is not so easily moved, showed an increase of about 5 per cent. The movement of merchandise was about normal, exceeding that of a year ago by a fair margin.

RAILROADS ARE ANGRY.

MANUFACTURERS BOYCOTTED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A policy of retaliation against the Illinois Manufacturers' Association that will amount to a business boycott of all its members is being formed by the railroads of the country. Nothing has so aroused the indignation of the members of the railroad men as the charges which were filed against the railroads by the association.

The future, no first that is a member of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association will be able to sell any of its products to the railroads that were represented at the investigation.

END OF ROPE.Industrial Desperation for San Francisco.Slackening in Building
Brings a Crisis.Business Men Disgusted; Laborers Enraged.Dr. H. B. Pinney, a builder of San Francisco, who is "on the inside" of the labor union situation in that city, is in Los Angeles on a visit to his relatives."Both Los Angeles and San Francisco are going through a crisis," he said yesterday. "I don't know what the outcome will be.""San Francisco can't go on much further under present conditions.
Either Los Angeles must be unionized —and I don't believe that canmen have come to me and asked for jobs where they could be inside and out of sight of the walking delegates.
I got some of my best men in this way. As a general thing, however, I found non-union men the better workmen.""I think that some of the labor leaders in San Francisco feel that they are about at the end of their rope. Others, having carried out the situation with a high hand so often, have an idea they can bluff it through somehow or other.""The truth is, the labor unions made a fatal mistake when they went into politics this time and elected Pinhead McCarthy to office. Pinhead was supported by many business men who hoped for a relief from the depression of the graft prosecution. Brilliant things were promised if San Francisco would but take its 'old way' again.
These promises were specially held out to the laboring men.""They have found out that McCarthy couldn't make good. The proposity he promised hasn't come through.
Although McCarthy and his advisers showed good deal of ability in their various industrial fights—their strikes and the like—he has exhibited no class as a Mayor. He has been a disappointment and small-bore engine as head of the city.""The business men are disgusted and the laboring men are enraged. The stock of P. H. McCarthy and his outfit is quoted very low.""They are up against it good and strong. In the past they have been able to bilk the employers as they liked; but now they have discovered that the employer has stopped. Had to.""No one can go on building, under normal conditions, at such wage scales as these: Carpenters, $5; bricklayers, $7; hod-carriers, $4; plasterers, $6.50.
Unless the demand for buildings is unusual and strenuous the cost is too great to build with profit. In my own case, I intend to stop building.""The employers of San Francisco had a fine chance to make that city an open-shop town at the time of the last strike when the hod-carriers tied up the building trades with a demand for shorter hours and more pay. The hod-carriers lost so disastrously that the employers could easily have insisted upon the open shop and won. But they let the chance slip.""From the bottom of my heart I hope Los Angeles won't let her chance slip."BURNS CORPSE

Foiled in Attempt to Cremate Body of Dead Brother—Charred Remains Raked From Pile Built in Field.
Tells of Pact Made.[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
ONEONTA (N. Y.) Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Edward Pindar, 45 years old, a wealthy, eccentric bachelor of eminence in New York, prepared a funeral pyre yesterday, enveloped the dead body of his brother, William, 74 years old, whose death occurred Sunday, from Bright's disease, in a grain sack, dragged it through the fields and placed it on the pyre. There he completely hid the corpse with an old mattress and lighted the mass.A farmer working in an adjoining field caught the odor of burning flesh and aware of the eccentricities of his neighbor, rushed to where Pindar stood, poking the fire with a pitchfork.His calm demeanor at once vanished.
He told his neighbor that he was only destroying some rubbish. An effort was made to persuade Pindar to let the neighbor to poke the burning embers, set Pindar into a frenzy, further confirming the former's suspicions that all was not well.Rushing to the house to summon aid, he encountered Undertaker Hubbell, Coroner Wharton and Madison Pindar,
a brother of Edward, who had endeavored to cremate the body, but had found the bed on which it lay the night before, empty. The farmer told them of his suspicions and the party returned to the field.By this time Edward was apparently more determined than ever not to be disturbed in his work. It was necessary for the men to bind his hands while members of the party raked the fire, in which the body, much charred, was found.Coroners Wharton and Lipes viewed the body and issued the necessary permit. It was then removed to the house of Madison Pindar.The Pindar farm is situated in the eastern end of Jefferson township, on a lonely road. Here the two eccentric bachelors lived alone, since the death of their mother nine years ago.The body, rescued from the flames, was buried today in Emmence.While the funeral services were in progress, Edward was at work on his farm. When asked why he attempted to dispose of the body of his brother in such a barbarous fashion, he replied that he and William had agreed some years ago that the survivor was to cremate the body of the other.Neighbors believe it was an effort to save funeral expenses.

BIG AVIATION MEET PLANNED

M. and M. and Aero Club in Active Negotiations.

Pasadena Club Cuts in for Los Angeles Dates.

President Harmon of National Council Interested.

Another big mid-winter aviation meet is planned by the Aero Club of California, with the assurance that if a sufficient number of big aviators enter it will have the backing of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association to the extent of $10,000 or thereabouts.

Sanction was applied for as early as July 10, from the national council of the Aero Club of America and its affiliated clubs, the dates asked for being January 9 to 13, inclusive, or thereabouts.

Meanwhile 145 letters to aviators in France, England and Australia, and about forty to America, have been sent out and returns from these should be received almost any day.

Provided sufficient entries are secured early steps will be taken to conduct the meet on the general plan pursued last year, with the exception that there will be no promoters, the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association taking charge of the financial interests, and the Aero Club of California conducting negotiations with aviators and the national council, and taking charge of the contest field.

Plans of the M. and M. and the Aero Club have been in the making for nearly two months, and if aviators enter nothing will stand in the way of holding one of the greatest aviation meets ever conducted, as the contests are to be put on a purely sporting basis, without guarantee, yet with a sufficient number of prizes so that all the aviators should win something.

Nothing stands in the way of negotiations at present except matter of sanction, and in this respect there may be some difficulty, as the Aero Club of Pasadena has been given precedence by the national council, and it is alleged its application for dates for a mid-winter meet were in before those applied for by the Aero Club of California in July.

IN THE WOODPILE.

When Clifford B. Harmon was here at the aviation meet last winter he had a misunderstanding with the Aviation Committee of the M. and M. as to the terms relative to expenses for the balloon New York. Before he left for the East, he was banqueting by a number of Pasadena persons, and requested to go ahead with organization and officials of the contest.

When the Aero Club of California applied for a sanction for a contest to be held in Los Angeles, the Aero Club of Pasadena, transfer its sanction to Los Angeles, the grounds that the contest was to be made a great meet of the affair, and both cities would receive the benefit of the show, also that the contest was a full meet last year Los Angeles having the precedence in this territory.

It is believed that an amicable arrangement can be made with Pasadena, as the Tournament of Roses and tourist travel depend largely on Los Angeles support, while Pasadena has a large share of the hotel benefits from the meet if conducted by Los Angeles, hotel men of Pasadena being the active aviation workers.

EVERYBODY INCLUDED.

Of the letters sent out by the Aero Club of California more than a month ago, 161 went to aviators in France, forty-one went to England, and two to Australia. About two-score others were prepared and sent to American, Canadian and Mexican aviators September 2.

The letter is comprehensive, and answers should be expected in the next week. Following is a copy:

"Dear Sir: The Aero Club of California, under whose auspices and those of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association (as well as under sanction of the Aero Club of America), a successful aviation meet was held here last January between January 10 and 13, 1910. Sanction of the National Council has been requested. It is proposed to offer prizes amounting in total to $75,000, if sufficient entries are received. As a preliminary step, we wish to obtain from prominent aviators their view as to events and amounts and distribution of prizes. In which event you could and would make one or more entries at this meet with the assurance of a guarantee of your expenses, covering transportation of yourself, mechanics, machines or machines, one or both ways? State how many mechanics and machines you will bring. Please state your wishes in full as to these matters.

"Upon receipt of a sufficient number of favorable replies from yourself and others, forming entire blanks will be issued. In replying please give your mail and telephone address.

RHEUMATISM CANNOT EXIST

In the human body if you will use Trunk's Prescription for Rheumatism, Gout, Sciatica, etc., it is a pity and a shame to talk about rheumatism and gout, much less suffer with it, either inflammatory, muscular, sciatic or any other form of rheumatism. Trunk's Prescription for Rheumatism and Gout cures for $1.50 or six for $7.50.

According to Detective Beaumont, a girl about 14 years old, living at No. 519 Bunker Hill avenue, thought Tony Geseta was following her when she was going home Monday night, and chasing to pass the three young men, whom she knew, told them of it.

It is charged that the three young men then attacked Geseta and left him bleeding on the sidewalk. "Boy Wanted" The police were called at the time and Geseta was taken to the Receiving Hospital to have his injuries attended to. He told the police that he was hurt in defending himself, but did not wish to make a complaint. Detective Beaumont learned the identity of the men who were suspected of having attacked him and took them to the station, however.

Geseta lives at No. 821 Bartlett street.

BOY WANTED. CAN'T BE HAD.

SHOPS AND STORES HARD HIT BY RUSH TO SCHOOL.

Hundreds of Youngsters Quit Vacation Jobs to Resume Studies, and Package Delivery by Bicycle Is Demanded—Printers and Druggists the Greatest Sufferers.

A boy famine has struck Los Angeles. Scores of business houses are jamming frantic, but futile, appeals for juvenile help, and there seems to be little prospect of an early betterment of the situation. Advertisements in the Times of yesterday called for more than sixty boys, while "Boy Wanted" signs are displayed in numberless stores and shops downtown and in the residence districts.

The opening of school on Monday is to blame. Hundreds of youngsters who worked through vacation in stores and factories quit their jobs last Saturday night, while others held on until Monday to make the last possible dollar before taking up their studies in earnest. These latter simply reported at school and registered then hustled back to their employers and worked the remainder of the day.

Grocery and department stores, shoe emporiums and pharmacies, butcher shops and tailors—all feel the shortage keenly. But the printing offices apparently are the hardest hit. Twenty or more of the largest printing houses in the city are hampered in the delivery of their orders by the sudden rush schoolward. The telegraph and district messenger offices are also left short-handed.

Boys 16 or 17 years old, with wheels, are most in demand. In some instances advertisers announce that they will furnish a bicycle for a boy who will work for $25 to $30 a week, and in some of the positions offered there is opportunity for the boys to make "money on the side."

At the Sun Drug Company's store in Los Angeles, which has been made for the Sun chain of stores, there was only one boy on duty yesterday morning, where, in previous weeks, there were always two or more youngsters were impressed into service yesterday, and the management had hopes last evening that by the end of the week it would have a full force. Conditions are quite similar at the Owl drug stores.

Delivery clerks at the Western Union and Postal Telegraph offices report that they are unable to get as many boys as needed to carry the thousands of messages received daily, and as has been done in the past, men are being called in to do the work temporarily.

For some reason, too, there is a scarcity of the peculiar type of the kind that can ride a bicycle over a wet and slippery asphalt pavement, balance on his head a tray filled with restaurant grub for a "gent" or a lady in a furnished room. Seems almost as if the world were getting better when this article becomes scarce.

These district messengers—the kind that "know" the game—make more money in the course of a week than do many skilled mechanics. With commissions and tips, their earnings for one day often amount to $15 to $25. Still it is reported that the demand is greater than the supply.

While the compulsory education law is responsible in some measure for the present condition of the boy market, the burden of the blame is laid by complaining employers at the feet of old Gen. Prosperity. If times were hard and widows and young children were suffering, there are ways by which needy youth could be released from the obligations imposed by the compulsory education law, and could go to work at the good wages offered.

GREEKS TO MAKE NEW RULES.

ATHENS (Greece) Sept. 14.—King George opened today the session of the especially elected chamber, which is charged with a revision of the Constitution of Greece. His Majesty reminded the deputies that the mandates were limited to revision of the non-fundamental clauses of the Constitution. There is much popular enthusiasm over the government's new program.

CONTEST MEMBERS' ELECTION.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The Monarchists of the opposition today contested the election of twenty-six members of the government party. Parliament will not be convened until these contests are decided.

RELIGIOUS.
NEW PASTOR
FROM SEATTLE.Salem Congregational Church
Gets Good Preacher.

Rev. A. C. Smith's Twentieth Anniversary.

Special Services Mark Feast of Exaltation.

Salem Congregational Church has called a new pastor in the person of Rev. A. C. Smith, of Seattle. He will arrive here today or tomorrow and will begin his work with the church on next Sunday.

Mr. Smith comes from the Evangelical denomination which he has been serving for the past three years, and he and his family were given a farewell reception by that congregation, at which time the departing pastor received substantial evidence of their regard.

Rev. A. C. Smith, a "free lance" and church builder, was for a time the temporary pastor at Salem Church, followed by Rev. C. S. Billings, an evangelist, to the same capacity. In his connection he has been kept for a good man to take permanent charge and they feel confident that they have found him in the Rev. Mr. Smith. He will preach his first sermon on Sunday morning.

Several years ago Mr. Smith organized a congregation at Colgrove, and later built a church with a mile of dunes. After getting the church under way, he resigned as its pastor, to be again due to pursue his independent work, and tonight (Thursday) a new pastor will be installed at the Colgrove Church in the person of Rev. Mr. Smith. Mr. Smith and other ministers will take part in the ceremony.

Rev. Ralph D. Larkin of Escondido has been chosen to have charge of the Home Missionary Department of the Congregational Church on the Coast, succeeding Rev. J. L. Malle. He will return to this city and take up his work October 1.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY.
Will be celebrated tonight.

Tonight a celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the Rev. A. C. Smith as pastor of the First Christian Church will be held in that church, at eight o'clock.

James D. Warren, chairman of the local board, will preside, and a number of addresses will be delivered. The Rev. Mr. Smith will be the guest of honor.

The Rev. Mr. Smith, a native of Maine, came to this city in 1890, and has since that time been a resident here. He is a member of the First Christian Church, and has been a member of the same since its organization.

VAN CAMPAIGN
IN ENGLAND.OPEN AIR POLITICAL TOUR BY CONSERVATIVES.Trip Will Take in Wales and Will Embrace Ten Thousand Meetings.
Liberal and Labor Parties Also Alert and Plan Campaigns of Education for the Masses.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Forty-two Conservative campaign vans left London yesterday on an open-air speaking tour throughout England and Wales, to last three months, and to embrace 10,000 meetings in 400 constituencies. Each van is wonderfully equipped—gramophones, cinematographs and acetylene gas apparatus being mixed up with cooking utensils, hammocks and tents.

It is the object of the campaign to reach everybody, and especially people who ordinarily take little interest in politics. In every locality visited the van men will be joined by the local political husters, so that the campaign, it is expected, will be one of the hottest yet seen in England. Among the speakers will be Adolph Chamberlain and Lord Lansdowne.

The Liberal and Labor parties also are organizing campaigns, as the industrial situation concerns all parties. Liberals take different views of the claims of labor. Dr. John Macaulay, for example, declaring that the laborites want "the whole alphabet of political freedom and duty and duty and duty," while other Liberals, equally prominent, hold that the Osborne league is a dangerous and disloyal organization.

They ascribe the apparent lack of discipline in the ranks of labor less to disloyalty to their leaders than to the influence of the labor press in making the present machinery of arbitration work.

SENATE CHOICE IS UNCERTAIN.
Maine's Governor-elect Says No One Is Slated—Faction Avers Johnson

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] PORTLAND (Me.) Sept. 14.—Gov-elect Plaford declared today that the selection of a candidate for United States Senator was entirely in the hands of the Democratic Senators and Representatives-elect.

"No one is slated for any position," said the Governor-elect, "and I will state there has been no conference of leaders at any time during the campaign or since the election looking to a distribution of offices. We have four or five months to consider these matters."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] WATERVILLE (Me.) Sept. 14.—Charles F. Johnston, a lawyer of this city, will be a candidate to succeed United States Senator Eugene Hale next month. Leading Democrats declare that his election is virtually certain.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] AUGUSTA (Me.) Sept. 14.—Whether Maine will be represented in the next National House of Representatives by two or three Democrats continued uncertain today, with a fair prospect that a recount and possible recourse to the courts would be necessary. The uncertainty is in the Fourth District, where Congressman Frank E. Guernsey and George M. Hanson of Calais, his Democratic opponent, both claim the election.

The Republicans won in the First District and the Democrats in the Second and Third.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] MEXICO CITY, Sept. 14.—Curtis Guild, representing the United States as special ambassador during the celebration of Mexico's Centennial of Independence, at a luncheon given by him to government officials and diplomats in Chapultepec cafe today, assured his hearers that his government sought no new territory by control, and that its greatest desire was "peace with honor" and the winning of equal honor and respect for all America in every part of the world.

Foreign Minister Enrique C. Creel pointed out the health of President Diaz was not present, but designated Vice-President Corral to represent him.

The explosion occurred near Hampton Roads. The board took much testimony, the most important coming from Lieutenant-Commander Orin G. Murin, in charge of the ship's machinery. He told in graphic way how he had personally started two of the oil burners and was at work turning out the third when there was a flash of flame which seemed to run along the pipes and around the separating tank.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] MIDDLETOWN (N. Y.) Sept. 14.—Work is being pushed rapidly on the monument which will mark the grave of E. H. Harriman at Arden. The corner-stone was laid privately by Mrs. Harriman, with simple ceremonies, on Saturday last.

The monument, when completed, will be a massive shaft of severe design, in which will be carved only Mr. Harriman's name, with the date of his birth and death.

The grave is situated in a grove of huge trees on the mountainside near Arden House, the home of the Harriman family.

CELEBRATION.
FIESTA WEEK
ON AT JUAREZ.Preparing to Unveil Statue of Namesake.Made of Bronze, Cast in Italy;
Marble Base.Paid for by Small Contributions
by the People.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] EL PASO (Tex.) Sept. 14.—Ceremonies incident to the unveiling of the statue of Benito Juarez, styled the George Washington of Mexico, commenced in Juarez, across the line, today.

The statue is of bronze, Mr. Juarez, and is mounted on a massive marble pedestal. It was cast in Rome and paid for with small contributions from the people.

During the latter days of the reign of Maximilian in Mexico, in 1865, Juarez, then President of the republic, was driven north by the French invaders and hemmed in at Juarez. He remained there with his army for several months, and the border town constituted the temporary capital of Mexico.

It was only when assistance was received from the United States that Juarez was able successfully to meet the invaders.

The statue will be unveiled September 18, the nation's birthday, by Gov. Sanchez of the State of Chihuahua. Now in progress, no notable will come from the capital, although some more is dictated by President Diaz.

The town of Juarez is in the midst of fiesta week, with gambling, bull fights, and other Mexican amusements open for indulgence. Thousands of visitors are arriving from the interior.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] During a heavy rainstorm tonight, a fire broke out in the town of Santa Barbara, causing a short-circuit which set fire to three buildings, and demolished the entire upper section of the city's lighting system for the night.

When the fire was sparking, William Rucker, a printer, stood watching it and directly under the danger point. When it parted and fell he started to run but was not quick enough and the live wire wrapped around his leg, throwing him fifteen feet. At first it appeared he was dead, but with medical aid he was revived and taken to his residence only severely shocked.

The alarms for the fire in the residence district were turned in at the same time but all were extinguished with only slight injuries to the property.

The rain which caused the havoc started shortly before 8 o'clock and continued until midnight. The fire broke out in the town of Santa Barbara, causing a short-circuit which set fire to three buildings, and demolished the entire upper section of the city's lighting system for the night.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Ellen Decker, ticket agent of the Staten Island Rapid Transit Railroad at Tower Hill, Port Richmond, caught a big grasshopper jumping away with a $1 bill belonging to the railroad company yesterday. Mrs. Decker says she is willing to make an affidavit that the grasshopper tried to abstract the money. Of course neither Mrs. Decker nor any one knows what the grasshopper wished to do with the money. A saloon is near the station and it was suggested that the insect was thirsty and there has not been much rain on Staten Island. She will present the grasshopper as a curiosity to the Staten Island Academy of Natural History.

PROPRIETOR DODGES BULLET WHEN BANDITS HOLD UP STORE.

Daring Effort by Two Young Men to Loot Cash Register in Pharmacy Nearly Results in Murder.
Suspect Captured.

CHOOSING the moment for robbery the instant that several well-dressed women left the soda fountain, two young men entered the National Pharmacy, No. 1801 South Grand avenue, about 8:30 last night, and when asked by the proprietor, A. E. Kruehl, what they wished, leveled a revolver at his head and ordered him to pour the contents of the cash register into his hat.

Kruehl dropped upon his hands and knees behind the counter and crept rapidly as possible to the prescription room, in the rear of the store, and just as he entered the room one of the bandits fired at him, missing his head by about an inch. The bullet penetrated a box of medicine and lodged in a bottle.

While the older of the two men, about 23 years of age, stood with his pistol pointed toward the doorway through which Kruehl had crept, the other, a man about 21 years old, opened the cash register and grabbed all the money he could, then the men ran from the store. In his haste, the one who opened the cash register was unable to put the money in his pocket, and coins dropped in a stream to the floor.

An estimate made by Kruehl after the police arrived placed the loss at just $1. The remainder of the amount taken from the register being picked up on the floor and counter.

Running to the front of the store, the two young men broke through a number of people who were about to enter the store and, separating, fled, one of the robbers disappearing down South Grand street and the other choosing Sixteenth street as his avenue of escape.

A young man who told the police his name was Streiff, and that he lived at No. 215 West Sixteenth street, claimed to be within a short distance of the store when the shot rang out, and he hurried toward the store in time to see one bandit run east, on Sixteenth street. Streiff said he followed the man as far as Los Angeles street and then lost track of him.

SUSPECT CAPTURED.

Capt. Bradish of the University Police Station arrived at the scene a few minutes after the men had left the store and he gave chase to a man whom he saw hurrying along Sixteenth street. The fellow turned into an alley and hid behind a barn from which place Capt. Bradish drew him out and took him to the University Station, where he was questioned.

The man gave his name as George E. Graham of No. 510 Vegas street, and said that he was a cook formerly employed at Levy's cafe, 713 and 715 Main streets, but that he had not been working for several weeks. He said that he knew nothing of the robbery and that he happened to be in the vicinity of the store on an errand.

The rest of his statement is as follows: "I was asked by a fellow named Kruehl, who lives at 215 West Temple street, to escort her to the house of a friend about two blocks from the drug store. When we got to the house, Kruehl told me to go to the drug store to get a bottle of peroxide. I arrived there as the man ran out of the store and a man with a gun started toward me. I became frightened and ran and he followed, threatening to shoot me. I was afraid he would shoot so I turned into the alley and hid where Capt. Bradish found me."

Graham is about 15 years old and has but one leg, having lost a limb in an accident in San Francisco a few years ago. Despite that, however, he is able to run quite rapidly with a crutch.

After questioning Graham, Capt. Bradish said he believed the young man was telling the truth, but he declared it best to hold him, and Graham was detained at the University Station.

When Kruehl saw the man run out of the front door he hurried to a phone and summoned the police. The University Station forwarded men to the scene immediately and sent word to the Central Police Station.

Detectives McCann and Ingram were ordered out, but all of the police automobiles were then out of the station. Dr. J. A. Frost happened to enter the store and he volunteered to take the detectives in his machine.

On their arrival at the store a crowd had gathered and the police were using bold methods of the bandits was causing excitement.

PROPRIETOR'S STATEMENT.

Detectives McCann and Ingram took the proprietor's statement which is in part as follows: "When some customers at the soda fountain left the store I sent the boy at the fountain out to deliver some medicine. I then went back into the prescription room to move some boxes of supplies which had come during the afternoon. I heard some one enter the store and went back into the room. They carelessly walked toward the counter where the cash register stands and I met them there. The smaller man stepped toward the soda fountain and the front door and the older one, who was about a head taller, drew a gun and before I could see what they were up to, had it leveled at my head. They then told me to give them the money in the cash register and I dropped as quickly as I could and made my way to the back of the store. I was very close to my head and buried itself in a box beside me. I heard them run out and hurried to the 'phone to get help. Kruehl, when asked if he thought he could identify the men, said he was quite sure of it. He then gave the names of the two young men, who have been giving trouble for some time, and said that from the description he gave of them he was almost convinced that he was one of the two who had held him up."

EX-CONVICT SUSPECTED.

Comparing the descriptions given by Kruehl and Streiff, the detectives advanced the belief that one of them had Mexican blood, while the other is believed to be an ex-convict and one who has been addicted to the use of opiates.

Though they will not commit themselves, it was intimated that the detectives have about decided who the men are. They are said to have held up stores before in a similar manner, and usually to have made very good hauls.

There is one of the tribe of street-corner Don Juans here who is remorselessly nursing a much bruised face as the result of a sound thrashing given to him by Superintendent Frank Van Vranken, of the southern division of the Pacific Electric Company, on the crowded floor of the company's waiting rooms, at Sixth and Main streets, when he finally recovered from his daze, it was to crawl away and lose himself in the fast-gathering crowd.

ACCOMMODATING BURGLAR.

Perch Climber Informs Police by Mail Where the Burglar May Be

After robbing the home of A. Jenson, No. 1954 West Thirty-ninth place, a painstaking burglar took the trouble to write to the police and inform them where they could find that part of the loot for which he had no use.

The burglar was committed about a week ago, and reported to the police the next morning. A handbag containing a watch, $17 in cash and a check for $25 was stolen, together with some commercial papers. No trace of the burglar nor the stolen property could be discovered.

Yesterday, Capt. Bradish, in command of the University Police Station, gasped as he opened his mail and came across a note signed, "One in Need," and coolly giving him the details of how the job had been done, and how useless it would be to look for the burglar. The letter closed with the information that if the captain sent officers to look behind a bush on a vacant lot at Adams street and Vermont avenue he would find the handbag, together with the watch, check and other papers. The writer regretted very much that he was unable to return the money.

The handbag was found last night by Patrolmen Oaker and Oakley, exactly in the spot described by the burglar.

Humane Animal League Warns Owners City Ordinance Has Not Been Repealed.

The Humane Animal League at a meeting held yesterday determined to take drastic steps to convince citizens, who allow their dogs to go unmuzzled, that it means business. The impression prevails that the muzzling ordinance has been repealed in the city. This is not the fact. The county ordinance is not now in force, but the League is doing business and will the members state, take to the pound every dog found on the streets without a muzzle, whether registered or not.

It is stated that there is no objection to having a dog unmuzzled, if it is enclosed in a backyard or a dog may be taken out, unmuzzled, on a leash. If these precautions are not taken, the League will pick up every dog and if necessary men will be sent out at night for that purpose.

HITS HEART.

SPURNS HIS PAUPER WIFE.

FILES SUIT FOR DIVORCE AND SLAYS SELF.

While Woman He Took for Better or Worse is Inmate of Poor Farm in Kansas Husband Involes Law Here for a Legal Separation—Makes It Eternal.

With one shot through the heart, J. Newton Barry put an end to his troubles yesterday afternoon as he lay in a little room at the Adams House, No. 352 Stephenson avenue. The body was turned over to the coroner, a clear case of suicide.

His brain affected, Barry had been suing for divorce, while his wife was a pauper on a Kansas county farm. Barry, who was about 42 years of age, and a carpenter by occupation, came here from Horton, Kan., several years ago. About six weeks or two months since, he filed suit for divorce on grounds of desertion, retaining Attorney Charles S. McKelvey of this city. Barry had but little money, so he paid his attorney on installment, and it was through one of the receipts given to him by his lawyer that the man was identified.

The man is believed by other occupants of the Adams House, where he had been living about two weeks, to have been mentally unbalanced, and this belief is shared by Attorney McKelvey.

"I am not surprised," said McKelvey last night, when informed of the man's death. "I had thought Barry was acting queerly for some time, and he became worse when I learned that he had filed suit for divorce. I learned from the Sheriff at Norton that his wife was on the county farm there. I asked him what he meant and told him I thought the desertion was on his side. He became very much excited and left without giving any explanation."

Barry locked himself up in a little room, and removing his coat and vest, lay upon a bed and shot himself in the left breast with a cheap revolver. He was lying on his back, and the bullet entered the left breast and passed through the right breast, and out of the back.

William Lawson, a mining man from Alaska, was passing through the hall near Barry's room when he heard the shot. He paused an instant, undecided as to which room the reporter came from, but a few minutes later he noticed the odor of cordite, and being clothed. A thin wreath of smoke was issuing from the transom of room No. 35, and Lawson hesitated no more. The key was turned in the lock, but the trail door gave way at the first smash of his powerful shoulder, and in the dim light he saw a man stretched out on the dingy bed, motionless, while the clothing smoldered all over his breast and shoulders.

Lawson caught up a pitcher and dashed a little water on the fire. The man on the bed never moved, and Lawson, knowing he was dead, so he calmly notified the police.

TRAMP KILLED IN SMASH-UP.

ESPEE OIL TRAIN PILES UP IN NARROW CUT.

Schedule Over Valley Line is Deranged and "Owls" Are Rerouted Via Coast Tracks—Oil Containers Burst and Loss Results—Broken Flange Cause of Mishap.

The wreck of a heavily-loaded freight train at Vincent, on the valley line of the Southern Pacific Tuesday evening, caused the death of one man, an unknown tramp, the loss of about $3000 in damages to track, rolling stock and freight, and a ten-hour blockade which brought both north and south-bound "Owl" trains to their destinations from three to nine hours behind their schedules.

The freight, a full train of fifty-two cars, was en route from Bakfield to Globe, Ariz., carrying a twelve-car consignment of crude oil for use in the Arizona smelters. At a rate of about fifteen miles an hour it entered a narrow cut about a mile north of Vincent, where the wreck occurred. A portion of the wheel flange of one of the oil cars broke off and the car was derailed. The coupling in front was sheared off and the cars behind piled up against the obstruction, some of them being badly crushed, and others overturned beside the track. Several of the oil tanks were burst, about $500 worth of oil being lost.

An unknown Mexican, evidently a tramp, beating his way on the rods of one of the overturned cars, was instantly killed, his crushed body being later recovered from beneath a pile of wreckage. None of the train crew sustained any injuries.

Immediately on learning of the accident, which occurred at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Assistant Superintendent Dodge and a force of twenty-five men left Los Angeles with a wrecking train. Officials at Mojave, about forty miles north of the scene, were notified and an additional force of wreckers sent from there. By working all night the wreckage was cleared away and the track repaired by 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

The principal trains delayed as a result of the line block were the two "Owl" trains running between San Francisco and Los Angeles. Both were detained over the Coast tracks.

HELPING HAND.

FINDS FRIEND IN COUNTESS.

Disciple of Bahaiism Calls on Mrs. Krauss.

After Conference Says She Will Raise Bail.

Believes in Helping Those in Trouble.

Apparently deserted by her relatives, and forsaken by all her former friends, Mrs. Virginia Krauss, held in the City Jail in default of $2000 bail for the shooting of Frank H. Griffith, found a new friend last night, a Bahai, in the person of Countess Aurelia Bethlen, a Hungarian exponent of Bahaiism. The Countess said yesterday, after a long conference with the prisoner in Stratton Gillette's parlor, that she would try to raise bail for Mrs. Krauss and is certain of success.

The stately presence of the Countess attracted attention as soon as she entered the Police Station. Her tall and well-molded form was draped in a close-fitting gown of black silk. The diamonds in her ears and on her fingers, the long chains of dull gold, with its six or seven tiny pearls, showed the Countess to be a person of means and good taste, but the manner and evident breeding of the visitor sufficed to set officers to bowing and scraping, right and left as she walked by them.

"I am a missionary, and I would like to visit the prisoner," she said to Lieut. George Williams. At least, that is all Williams will admit she said, although it took quite a time to say it. He referred her to the detective's office, where Detective Chapman, the officer in charge, bowed low and asked her business in his most polite voice. "I would like to visit the prisoner," she said.

She did not say she belonged to any organization of missionaries or any church here, and the Chesterfield Chapman asked more questions. "Please, will you get into the newspaper?" I would not like that at all, you know," countered the visitor. Chapman diplomatically replied that missionaries frequently visited the jail, without attracting any attention from the reporters.

"I would like to see Mrs. Krauss," confided the Countess at last, when the officer's professional curiosity had been satisfied.

"Name, please," asked Chapman, reaching over for the pad of pass blanks.

"Oh, now, I do hope you will not tell anything to any of the reporters," exclaimed the Countess. "I only want to give her a little religious comfort, and my name does not matter, does it?"

But the name did matter. Also, a reporter was standing, her elbow against the wall, and she was looking at the Countess when she spelled it out, "B-e-h-l-e-n."

"I do not accept any dogma and I belong to no organized church, but I try to do the work of God and help those who are in trouble," said the Countess, after she had seen Mrs. Krauss.

The Countess, however, who is residing at No. 1909 Shatto street, has very advanced and decided views on religion, despite her denials. A highly educated woman, speaking both English and French, she is an ardent believer in Bahaiism, which originated in Persia and has many followers in this city. The basic principle is fellowship.

Rudolph Rovigno, the automobile racer was engaged to the Countess. It is said, not so very long ago. The Countess was then living at the Lanker-shim and the romance between the two claimants of noble blood seemed sure of a happy termination. But something happened. Rovigno will not say what it was. The engagement is off, and the Countess is free to give all her time to her religious work, and the hand of a friend.

Dick Ferris filed his statement of account in connection with his recent race for Lieutenant-Governor, and incidentally made very insinuations against two of his political friends.

Henry Torpin, grain dealer of Oakdale, Neb., wrote Judge Dehy that if the court gave his daughter, Louise Hancock, a decree of divorce from Frank H. P. Zanuck, he would care for the young son.

PARK PROJECT "LAST STRAW."

NUMEROUS ASSESSMENTS CAUSE PROTEST TO MAYOR.

Committee Opposing Agricultural Park South Annexation Complains That the Council Did Not Give a Fair Hearing—Wants Whole City to Pay the Expense.

An echo of demonstration made by property owners of the southwest before the Council Tuesday in favor of adding a large strip to the south side of Agricultural Park was heard in the Mayor's office yesterday. A committee of five representing property owners who oppose the addition and its consequent assessments called on the Mayor to say they had been denied a respectful hearing by the Council which was stamped by the numbers of those favoring the scheme.

The Mayor, however, would not believe the Council had denied a fair hearing and the committee finally centered its blame on Councilman O'Brien, a part of the annexation project, declaring that he sidetracked their speakers by asking unnecessary questions.

M. H. Parrish and John Fink, speaking for the protesters, told the Mayor that the Council had listened to the speakers for the project but had obstructed those urging a larger assessment district.

They said they called on the Mayor to insure a hearing later when the real fight is on, and that they received no assurance. But the Mayor also told them he had nothing to do with the fight now and would not take a position until the Council had passed the ordinance for condemnation. He advised the committee to prepare a protest and file with the Council before the ordinance comes up for consideration.

Finks pointed out that most of the residents of the assessment district are buying homes on contracts and have no real voice in a valid protest.

The title remains in the tract owners who are not obligated to pay the assessments. The committee pointed out that some of the assessments but they cannot legally protest. As it will require a majority of the frontage in the district they believe this almost an impossibility.

The district agreed on is bounded by Main, Arlington, Jefferson and Macomber streets, and extends from the city limits to the south. It contains some 10,000 acres. It has thousands of pieces of property and getting a protest will mean costly work for the district.

A curious story of love and revenge is told by the man who has charge of Barnum and Bailey's simian collection

The fact that it relates to an African monkey, doesn't abate the human interest in the narrative. This man had charge of a shipment of some 300 monkeys, which were intended for the big menagerie at the Bronx.

The monkeys were confined in a large room near the furnace of the freight steamer. Among them were two unusually intelligent simians which were released during the voyage and permitted to the freedom of the ship. Un-happily a sudden storm arose and one was washed overboard. The remaining one, who had not seen his comrade's for hours and finally betook himself to the rigging where he remained three days, refusing food and avoiding all efforts to capture him.

No doubt he held the sailors responsible for the death of his mate, and schemed to be revenged. The third

Arizona Laws no Protection in This State.

Decision Affects Liability of Stockholders.

Creditors May Recover in Wildcat Ventures.

Thousands of corporations doing business in this state, but organized in Arizona and other places for the purpose of evading stockholders' liability, are suffering from the shock of a decision just handed down by the Supreme Court of California.

The finding in order is to the effect that they are just as amenable to the laws of the state as though they had filed their incorporation papers here. Stockholders by the tens of thousands are affected by this decision. They were relying, secure behind the barrier of Arizona laws which they believed protected them from being compelled to pay up when "wildcat" schemes turned out wrong and lined the treasuries with creditors.

The new interpretation was put on the laws in the case of Frank N. Thomas against the Westworth Hotel Company, and others, F. A. Warner being one of the defendants. The latter carried the case to the highest court after the plaintiff had been given judgment in the Superior Court of this county.

The Westworth Company was organized under the Arizona laws and sought to take advantage of the clause which provides that the corporations have no liability to the private property of members from the liability for corporate debts.

The law requires that the articles of incorporation must specify the exemption, or the stockholders will be liable in the proportion that their holdings bear to all of the stock issued. In this state there is no provision for making such exemptions, and the stockholders must bear their proportional share of the indebtedness.

HARVEST FOR LAWYERS. California lawyers have been reaping a harvest for some time by incorporating companies under the laws of Arizona, putting in the exemption clause and making provisions so that the corporations can do business in this state.

This made it necessary for the incorporators to pay filing fees both in Arizona and here, but they did not care for this expense as long as they could gain what they thought would be security against stockholders' liability.

The latter was a great asset for concerns which were taking "flyers." They sold stock where it would have been otherwise impossible to do so, often with large holdings were willing to take a chance on a block of the stock, if they thought they would not be held liable if the project blew up. The idea of having to pay up, the debts of these corporations is not pleasing to them.

When the stockholders in the hotel company were sued, they set up the defense that their private property was immune under the clause which had been inserted in the Arizona incorporation papers. The Superior Court held that this was no defense, and the higher court sustained it.

BINDS STOCKHOLDERS. In concluding the opinion in the case, the Supreme Court declared: "There is no injustice or hardship in this result. The law of this state declares in express terms that the liability of each stockholder of a corporation formed under the laws of any other state or territory of the United States, or of any foreign country, and doing business within this state, is the same as the liability of a stockholder of a corporation created under the constitution and laws of this state."

This statute carries out the constitutional mandate that foreign corporations shall not be allowed to transact business within this state on more favorable conditions than are prescribed by law to similar corporations organized under the laws of this state. (Const. Cal., art. XII, sec. 15.)

These provisions existed when this corporation was formed for the express purpose of evading the laws of California. The stockholders, seeking to avail themselves of the permission granted by the state to foreign corporations to do business here, knew, or should have known, the terms upon which this privilege was tendered. They should not be allowed to take advantage of the benefits afforded by our law, at the same time repudiating the accompanying burdens.

He declares that he complied with his promise to carry out instructions but that he now suffers from the same as he did before taking the treatment. BEING OUTBOASTED BY LIVE EASTERN CITIES. Convention League Calls for Great Guaranty Fund—Not Possible to Secure Any of the Big Ones Till the Cash is in Sight—Businesslike Plan is Considered.

To raise a fund of at least $300,000 to be used in financing conventions, was the decision arrived at yesterday by the Los Angeles Convention League.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the league, held in the Chamber of Commerce, representatives of various commercial bodies, who are also members of the Executive Committee, stated that it has become evident that no convention of any considerable size can be secured until a substantial guaranty fund is on hand. It was said that leading cities throughout the country are in the field seeking every desirable convention, and that Los Angeles needs the support of her loyal citizens if she is to get her share.

"Obtaining conventions has become a business by itself," said M. H. Flint, president of the league. "During my recent trip to the East, I found that New Orleans, Rochester, Detroit, Buffalo, Denver and other cities are making businesslike campaigns in search of conventions. They realize that there is no better way of advertising a city than to have in their midst thousands of delegates from all over the country."

Convention League Calls for Great Guaranty Fund—Not Possible to Secure Any of the Big Ones Till the Cash is in Sight—Businesslike Plan is Considered.

To raise a fund of at least $300,000 to be used in financing conventions, was the decision arrived at yesterday by the Los Angeles Convention League.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the league, held in the Chamber of Commerce, representatives of various commercial bodies, who are also members of the Executive Committee, stated that it has become evident that no convention of any considerable size can be secured until a substantial guaranty fund is on hand. It was said that leading cities throughout the country are in the field seeking every desirable convention, and that Los Angeles needs the support of her loyal citizens if she is to get her share.

"During my recent trip to the East, I found that New Orleans, Rochester, Detroit, Buffalo, Denver and other cities are making businesslike campaigns in search of conventions. They realize that there is no better way of advertising a city than to have in their midst thousands of delegates from all over the country."

Los Angeles has more attractions than any other city in the country, and we must make a strong effort to get more of these desirable meetings.

The plan to be adopted for raising the guaranty fund of $300,000 is to get subscriptions from the railroads, hotels, wholesale and retail associations, and other sources. Of the total amount subscribed, only 50 per cent. is to be called for in any one year, and only 10 per cent. in any one month, and only when occasion demands it. The league has decided that it is absolutely necessary to know how much money will be available, before any large national organization is invited to come here.

The plan is expected to appeal to business men, inasmuch as their subscriptions to this fund will relieve them of all further demands for money, and the league will pay all expenses incident to securing a convention, and for entertaining the delegates after they get here. The custom has been to go among the merchants every time a convention was to be held here, and so solicit funds for that special occasion. Responsible men, high in the confidence of the organizations they represent, compose the Executive Committee, which will handle the fund and audit all expenditures.

BUMPER RAISIN CROP.
Kings County Will Produce Ten Thousand Tons This Year—Netted Over $1,000,000.

HANFORD, Sept. 14.—Kings county's raisin crop for 1910 is estimated at 10,000 tons, about 2000 tons more than produced last year. The grapes are now nearly all on the trees and ready for turning. Some early varieties have already been sun-cured and delivered to the packing-houses. The crop this year has been uniformly better and of a better average yield than last year. Prices range around $10 a ton, which is from a cent to a cent and a half a pound better than paid last year. With promptness weather the remainder of the drying season the vineyardists will have had a most satisfactory season.

NEW SEWER PLAN.
The City Trustees have engaged Engineer C. P. Jensen to draw up specifications and estimates on the cost of a new sewer on North Irwin street, together with extensive laterals, and a new sedimentation tank at the sewer farm. The extension is designed with the idea of relieving the congestion of the main system and providing better drainage for some of the residential streets. A rough estimate places the cost at $50,000. It is proposed by the Trustees to submit a bond issue for about $50,000 to cover the cost of this new sewer and provide fire mains and an auto fire truck.

RECORD ATTENDANCE.
The city schools opened Monday with record attendance for the first day. Three grammar schools are being operated in Hanford this year, with C. W. Baker as supervising principal. In the High School domestic science, which was introduced this year, proved such a popular subject that the size of the classes necessitates the holding of sessions after the regular school hours. A course in agriculture was also inaugurated this year. The Trustees purchasing half a block near the school for experimental purposes.

NOTED OIL CASE.
W. W. Parlin, prominently connected with the oil industry as Coalings and with several mining companies, has given $10,000 bail in Justice J. W. Ferguson's court on a charge of misrepresentation in a prospectus of a mining company of which he was the head. Benjamin Hancock of Longport is the complainant. The charge was filed several weeks ago, but the warrant of arrest was not served until his return from an eastern pleasure trip. The charge is the companion to one filed by C. E. Bailey against A. L. Harlow, a director in the same company, who recently gave $10,000 bail in San Francisco. Mr. Parlin has a beautiful home in Lind Vista Heights, Oakland. The case has attracted much attention because of his prominence. The date for the preliminary hearing has not yet been set.

FRESNO'S BIG PARK PLANS.
To Establish Playgrounds for Young People as Well as for Old Ones.

FRESNO, Sept. 14.—This city is about to make some very extended improvements in the way of children's playgrounds, under which title some of the most important contributions to the public amusement will be made. On some of the six blocks that have been purchased with bond money there will be established playgrounds for smaller children. On others there will be diversions for the older, including baseball, football and tennis grounds. The latter will be especially well fitted out. Either cement or asphalt courts will be laid, and a caretaker will be provided to regulate the use to the best advantage of the public. These sites, besides providing entertainment for the young people, will be breathing spaces in the heart of the city for all future time.

SOLD IT SEVEN TIMES.
O. H. Parker, son of an aged rancher to the north of town, has the distinction of being arrested yesterday on a charge of selling his father's farm to seven different packers and obtaining money from all of them. This bit of financing, while commendable from a business point of view, jarred the feelings of some of the packers, and the young man will be vigorously prosecuted unless his father can adjust the matter. The warrant was sworn to by George Hooper, a justice of the peace, and the man made California famous by first growing Emrys figs and culturing the fruit by the use of the fig wasp from Asia Minor.

PORTERVILLE.
PORTERVILLE, Sept. 14.—Vendors of "Parker's Pink Pellets," guaranteed to cure every human ailment, and physicians whose chief qualification is the strength of their lungs, and all other fakery of the same general nature will find that hereafter Porterville will be anything but a pasture green in which to browse. By a unanimous vote of the City Council, there was passed by the city lawmakers a new license law, which will make such commercialism almost an impossibility. According to the new law, street-vendor sales will pay into the city treasury the sum of $25 per day, traveling physicians $50 per day, book agents, agents for enlarged pictures, insurance solicitors with no fixed office and other itinerant vendors of merchandise will pay for their licenses at the rate of $50 per day.

For the regular merchandise establishments the license will vary from $2 per quarter to $20 per quarter, depending upon the amount of monthly business which is transacted. Contracts were let at the meeting of the City Council held last evening for the paving of one mile of street in the fashionable shopping district of this city, the paving to be done by Division street and city limits.

Several bids for the work were received, but the lowest was for $100,000, although the southern contractors offered figures. Several of the Los Angeles firms had representatives at the bidding meeting, but did not offer bids.

Twenty and one-half cents per foot is to be paid for grading the street and covering the same with what is known as Class A concrete paving. This will be the foundation of six inches of macadam and will be topped with a crown of one and one-half inches of asphalt.

Stages running between this city and the various hill resorts will close the season with trips the last of the week, the cool weather of the few days having been enjoyed by the Camp Nelson, Doyle's, Mountain and Hot Springs.

Meyer is a prominent business man and has been active in public affairs. He was elected president of the association at a meeting held in the city last evening. The association is a national organization of business men and is interested in the development of the Pacific coast. Meyer's term of office will run for one year.
